

“Cornell Cooperative Extension of Oneida County is looking for talented and conscientious volunteer board members to replace outgoing members and lead and strengthen our programs.

We’re especially looking for diverse Oneida County residents with legal, accounting, education, early childhood, STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math), human resource or nutrition experience. If you can contribute your time, expertise, and leadership one evening per month, and are interested in exploring this opportunity, please e-mail your resume to Mary Beth McEwen (mm822@cornell.edu), Attention Board President, by January 30, 2012. “
