Sponsored by Cornell Cooperative Extension of Tompkins County — Family and Community Development, Parent Education Network (PEN) / Stone Soup*

Stone Soup* is the tale of a hungry traveler who inspires a group of weary villagers to transform his pot of water and stones into real soup by adding what they thought were insignificant offerings to the broth. By pooling their simple resources, all gain hope, a sense of connection, and a new approach to problem-solving.

Stone Soup provides opportunities for parents and professionals to attend educational programs focused on parenting socially / emotionally challenged children.
