Washington County 4-H Dairy Bowl Members Moo-ving on to States

On March 10th, close to a dozen members of Washington County 4-H traveled to Johnsbury to compete at the Regional 4-H Dairy Bowl program.

The Senior Team placed 1st overall and included the following members: Ken Quick – Captain, (2nd Individual), Tatum Gillis (8th Individual), Justin & Peter Braun. Additionally, Pat Lundy (1st Individual), Carolyn Braun (6th Individual), and Casey Gillis (10th Individual) also competed at the event but were loaned out to other counties because Washington County had more Seniors than each county is allowed.

Washington County could only field one Junior this year because of age restrictions, but Ronnie Springer placed 6th Individual while playing for Rensselaer County.

The Novice Team placed 2nd overall. Brianna Scribner – Captain, placed 5th as individual. The other members of the team included Lauren Quick, Taylor Clark, Kealan Hitt, Raen & Shaina Austin. Additionally, Kassidy Hitt played for Saratoga and Chrissy Putnam practiced with the team but did not play.

Obviously, Washington County has a bright future in the short-term with the great group of Seniors and a very good Junior. We are also well set for the future with a bright, young group of Novices. A special note of thanks to Amy Braun, Chris Cripps, Jill Gillis, Regina Lundy, Emily Tudor for either helping or coaching our teams!
